Registration accepts this declaration of participation in the race

As a registered participant participating in the Trail race, I declare:

1- That I know the content of the rules of the event available on the Organiser's website and that I accept them in their entirety.

2- That I undertake to comply with the rules and regulations, ensuring my safety and that of the rest of the participants.

3- That exempts the Organiser, its president, its board of directors, the Andorran Mountain Federation and/or any natural or legal person linked to the organisation of the event from the responsibilities arising from any accident caused by reasons linked to sporting accidents.

4- That it exempts the aforementioned from any damage that, for health reasons, may arise from my participation in the test, personally assuming the inherent risk to health that the physical effort required for participation in this test entails.

5-That I have the appropriate physical conditions and medical check-ups for the practice of the Trail.

6-That there is the possibility of suffering a sports accident linked to trail running; and/or natural risks, in which I would personally assume responsibility for the accidents that I myself could cause to any participant, or to third parties and I would exclude the organization from any liability arising from these accidents.

7- That we have committed to take care of the environment during the race, not to throw anything into the mountains, to follow all the indications of the organization in environmental matters and not to leave the marked route.
